The Bedlam Stacks
Natasha Pulley

A tale of magical landscapes and impossible quests in 19th-century Peru follows the experiences of a disabled former East India Company smuggler who reluctantly accepts a treacherous mission to fetch quinine from a tiny mission colony on the edge of the Amazon. By the author of The Watchmaker of Filigree Street.

Pieces of Happiness
Anne Ostby

Five longtime friends, now in their 60s, decide to live together on a cocoa farm in Fiji, where, while starting a chocolate business, they strengthen their friendship and rediscover themselves.

Girl in Snow
Danya Kukafka

When a beloved high school student is found murdered, a boy who loved her, a girl who envied her and the officer investigating the case are challenged to confront their darkest secrets in order to find the truth. A first novel.

All Is Beauty Now
Sarah Feber

A debut novel set in 1960s Rio de Janeiro follows the experiences of a family that relocates to Brazil a year after the accidental death of an eldest daughter, a tragedy that gives way to a father's bipolar extremes, a long-suffering wife's consequential affair and the growing awareness of their two surviving children.

The Lauras
Sara Taylor

A 13-year-old girl on the run with her mother from her father revisits her mother's former foster care homes to repay old debts and keep promises, learning astonishing truths about her mother's identity that reinforce their bond in extraordinary ways.

Are You Sleeping
Kathleen Barber

Distancing herself from her brutally unhealthy family to the point that she lies about her identity to her partner, Josie is forced to confront the past and her own choices when an investigative reporter's mega-hit podcast reopens Josie's father's murder case.

Dark River Rising
Roger Johns

Struggling with a complicated personal life and a partner out on medical leave, Baton Rouge police detective Wallace Hartman investigates a gruesome murder at the side of Federal Agent Mason Cunningham in an uneasy partnership that ties the case to the disappearance of a government lab scientist. A first novel.

Wicked Like a Wildfire
Lana Popovic

All the women in Iris and Malina's family have the unique magical ability or "gleam" to manipulate beauty, but their mother insists they keep it a secret. But when their mother is mysteriously attacked, the sisters will have to unearth the truth behind the quiet lives their mother has built for them.

Reincarnation Blues
Michael Poore

A man who has been reincarnated nearly 10,000 times, living lives in regions from ancient India and Renaissance Italy to outer space and the modern world, searches for the secret to immortality so that he can be with his beloved, the incarnation of Death.

Class Mom
Laurie Gelman

Frowned upon by conservative fellow PTA members for her past as a single parent, Jen reluctantly agrees to become class mom during her youngest child's kindergarten year, a role that is challenged by parent drama, hypersensitive allergies and a former flame. A first novel.

The Misfortune of Marion Palm
Emily Culliton

Embezzling a small fortune from her daughters' private school to finance personal luxuries, Marion goes on the lam when her activities are exposed by a school audit, in a story also told from the points of view of her baffled husband and heartsick daughters.
