

HOT TITLES

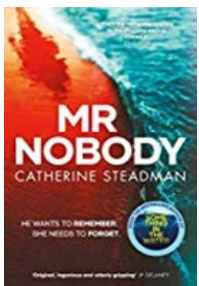

JANUARY 2020

Fiction

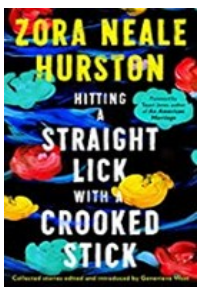

Run Me to Earth by Paul Yoon

Three children orphaned in 1960s Laos meet a dedicated doctor who enlists them as motorcycle couriers in his effort to rescue civilians and find medical supplies, in a novel from the award-winning author of Snow Hunters.

Mr. Nobody by Catherine Steadman

Treating a man found on the beach with no memory of his identity, a neuropsychologist who would hide her own past is confronted by her patient's mysterious knowledge of her secrets. By the author of Something in the Water.

Hitting a Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick by Zora Neale Hurston

Featuring eight lesser-known stories, a collection of Harlem Renaissance tales by the revered folklorist and author of Their Eyes Were Watching God explores subjects ranging from class and migration to racism and sexism.

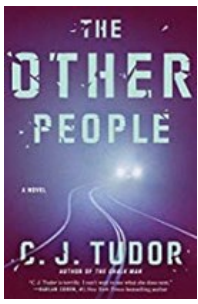

Lady Clementine by Marie Benedict

The best-selling author of The Only Woman in the Room presents a historical tale inspired by the life of Clementine Churchill that traces her unflinching role in protecting the life and wartime agendas of her husband, Winston Churchill.

Hi Five by Joe Ide

A latest entry in the best-selling series that includes, Righteous and Wrecked, finds genius private investigator Isaiah Quintabe's efforts to build a quiet life with Grace challenged by unexpected new threats.

The Other People by C.J. Tudor

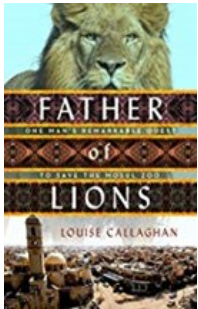

A man obsessed with tracking down the person responsible for his daughter's abduction is forced to reckon with events from his distant past, while a mother on the run desperately protects her own daughter from dangerous adversaries.

Long Bright River by Liz Moore

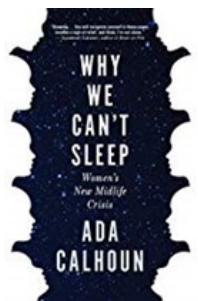

A policewoman races to find her missing sister, a homeless addict, amid a vicious killing spree in a Philadelphia neighborhood, in a story that alternates between the investigation and memories of their shared childhood. By the award-winning author of Heft.

Non-Fiction

Father of Lions: One Man's Remarkable Quest to Save the Mosul Zoo by Louise Callaghan

An award-winning journalist puts a human face on life under ISIS with the powerful true story of the evacuation of the Mosul Zoo, featuring Abu Laith the zookeeper, Simba the lion cub, Lula the bear, and countless others.

Why We Can't Sleep: Women's New Midlife Crisis by Ada Calhoun

The award-winning author of Wedding Toasts I'll Never Give presents a generation-defining exploration of the impossible standards being imposed on middle-aged Generation X women and what the author recommends to avoid burnout.

Teen

