Crossroads

Jonathan Franzen

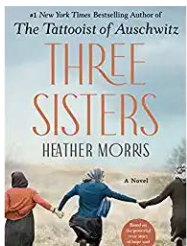

As Christmas 1971 approaches, the Hildebrand family of New Prospect, Illinois deals increasing points of crisis including a stale marriage, the draft and their son's sexual orientation in the first novel in a new trilogy from the author of Purity.

The Book of Magic (The Practical Magic Series Book 4)

Alice Hoffman

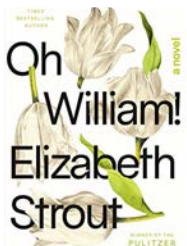

In this conclusion of the spellbinding Practical Magic series, a frantic attempt to save a young man's life spurs three generations of the Owens women to use their unusual gifts to break the curse as they discover secrets hidden from them in matters of both magic and love.

Three Sisters (Book 3 of Tattooist of Auschwitz)

Heather Morris

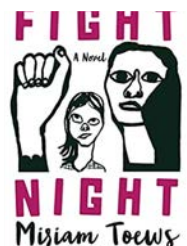

After surviving years of imprisonment in Auschwitz, three Slovakian sisters travel to Israel where the battle for freedom takes on new forms as they face the ghosts of their past and secrets they have kept from each other to find true peace and happiness.

Oh William (Book 3 of Amgash Series)

Elizabeth Strout

The iconic heroine of My Name is Lucy Barton recounts her complicated, compassionate relationship with William, her first husband—and longtime, on-again-off-again friend and confidant—and the lives they eventually built with other people.

Fight Night

Miriam Toews

A novel about 3 generations of women. Fight Night is a love letter to mothers and grandmothers, and to all the women who are still fighting—painfully, ferociously—for a way to live on their own terms.

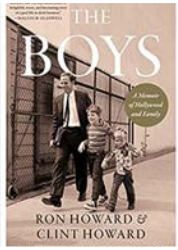

The Lincoln Highway

Amor Towles

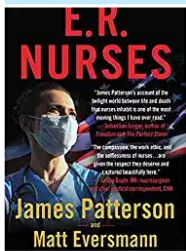

In June of 1954, 18-year-old Emmett Watson, released after serving 15 months for involuntary manslaughter, discovers that two friends from the work farm have hidden themselves in the trunk of the warden's car and have hatched a different plan for Emmett's future.
