Five Survive
Holly Jackson
Eight hours. Six friends. One sniper...
Red and her friends are on a road trip in an RV, heading to the beach for Spring Break. When the RV breaks down in the middle of nowhere and the wheels are shot out, one by one, the friends realize that this is no accident. There's a sniper out there watching and he knows exactly who they are.

Silver in the Mist
Emily Victoria
Eight years ago Devlin's country was attacked, her father was killed, and her mother became the Whisperer of Aris, the head of the spies. Dev has joined the spies and has dangerous new assignment: infiltrate the royal court of their neighbor country Cerena to steal the magic they need to combat the malevolent magic force of The Mists.

The Hunger Between Us
Marina Scott
The black market is Liza's lifeline after the Nazi's seized the city of Leningrad. She barter heirlooms for food. When her best friend disappears, Liza believes that the secret police are responsible. Her determination to find her friends places her in an increasingly dangerous web with two former classmates, one a policeman, the other forced to live underground.

The Q
Amy Tintera
Two teenagers from opposite worlds must fight their way through a vast walled quarantine zone in a dystopian America toward their only chance for survival.
Never Getting Back Together
Sophie Gonzales
When their now famous ex-boyfriend asks them to participate in a teen reality show, two eighteen year old girls—one bent on revenge, the other open to rekindling romance—get tangled up in an unexpected twist when they fall for each other instead.

Children of Ragnarok
Cinda Williams Chima
Ever since Ragnarok, the great war between the gods and the forces of chaos, the human realm of the Midlands has become a dangerous place, bereft of magic, where most lead lives of desperation. Sweeping adventure, breathtaking twists of fate, and immersive worlds based in Norse mythology are woven into this first volume of the Runestone Saga.

The Luminaries
Susan Dennard
Hemlock Falls isn’t like other towns. You won’t find it on a map, your phone won’t work here, and the forest might just kill you. Winnie wants nothing more than to join the Luminaries, the ancient order that protects the town and the rest of humanity from the monsters and nightmares that rise in the forest. In order to survive, Winnie enlists the help of the one person who can help her train: Jay Friday, Winnie’s ex-best friend. Jay seems to know more about the nightmares of the forest than he should. Together, he and Winnie will discover a danger lurking in the forest no one in Hemlock Falls is prepared for.

The Do-Over
Lynn Painter
After living through a dumpster fire of a Valentine’s Day, Emilie Hornby escapes to her grandma’s house for some comfort and a consolation. She falls asleep on the couch, but when she wakes up, she’s back home in her own bed and it’s Valentine’s Day all over again. Emilie is stuck in a time loop nightmare that she can’t wake up from as she re-watches her boyfriend, Josh, cheat on her day after day. In addition to Josh’s recurring infidelity, Emilie can’t get away from the enigmatic Nick, who she keeps running into in unfortunate ways. How many days can one girl watch her life go up in flames? And when something good starts to come out of these terrible days, what happens when the universe stops doling out do-overs?

Hanged! Mary Surratt and the Plot to Assassinate Abraham Lincoln
Sarah Miller
A dubious distinction belongs to Mary Surratt: on July 7, 1865, she became the first woman to be executed by the United States government, accused of conspiring in the plot to assassinate not only President Abraham Lincoln, but also the vice president, the secretary of state, and General Grant.
