

2023 COWAN SYMPOSIUM

Small Cowan Sale
9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Saturday,
April 15

9:00 am Morning Reception

9:30 am Cowan Show and Share

Bring your favorite, interesting, or newly acquired pieces to share with other participants.

10:00 am Crafting with the Curator

Join a guided tour of our current exhibit The Work of Thelma Frazier Winter and stay after to participate in a hands-on art activity inspired by the artist's work.  Registration required. Use QR code to register.

11:30 am Lunch Interested in having a catered onsite box lunch? Contact CPMA President Jenny Dieringer for details (440-895-0983).

1:00 pm Cowan Featured Artist Craig Clifford

Artist and Instructor of Ceramics at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh will speak about their practice and explain how they utilize the different aspects of slip-casting in their work. "I use the technique of casting to transform found objects and forms into rich tableaus that use color and texture..."

2:00 pm Unlocking an Art Deco Bedroom by Joseph Urban

Joseph Urban in his Yonkers studio, 1927. Joseph Urban Archive, Rare Book & Manuscript Library, Columbia University

Amy Dehan, the Cincinnati Art Museum's Curator of Decorative Arts & Design, will share research on the artist Joseph Urban. Urban played a key role in introducing Viennese modernism to American audiences. This, in turn, influenced designs created by many of the nation's artists, including those at Cowan Pottery.

3:00 pm CPMA Meeting

Annual meeting of the Cowan Pottery Museum Associates.

Rocky River Public Library | 1600 Hampton Road | Rocky River, Ohio 44116

