

Coming in May

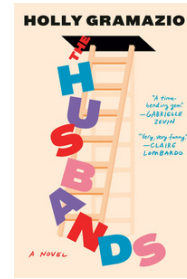

UNDER THE RADAR

April 2024

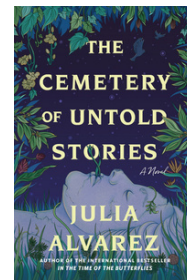

The House of Broken Bricks Fiona Williams

Pregnant Tess yearns for the familiarity and chaos of her former life after she and her partner Richard arrive in the English countryside. When their twins arrive, the family dynamic is changed when one child presents as black and one presents as white.

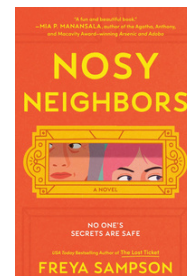

The Husbands Holly Gramazio

When Lauren returns home late one night, she is greeted at the door by her husband. There's only one problem--she's not married and has never seen this man before. But according to her friends and photos on her phone, they've been together for years.

The Cemetery of Untold Stories Julia Alvarez

Alma doesn't want to end up like her novelist friend who fought so long and hard to finish a book that it threatened her sanity. So when she inherits a small plot of land in the Dominican Republic, she turns it into a place to bury her untold stories--literally.

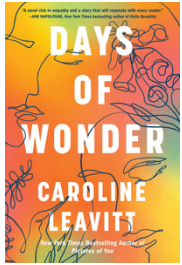

Nosy Neighbors Freya Sampson

Twenty something Kat keeps to herself in her historic apartment building. Seventy something Dorothy is a curmudgeon and the building's longest resident. When the building is slated for demolition, the two form an alliance amidst rumors of foul play.

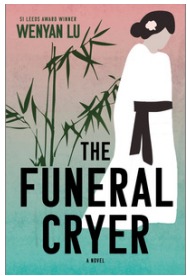

Crow Talk
Eileen Garvin

Frankie is a lonely ornithologist struggling to salvage her dissertation. Anne is an Irish musician far from home, raising her five-year-old son who refuses to speak. When Frankie finds an injured baby crow it brings all three together.

Days of Wonder
Caroline Leavitt

As a teenager Ella found love that consumed both her and her boyfriend, Jude, as they wandered the streets of New York City together. But her life was unexpectedly upended when she was accused of trying to murder Jude's father.

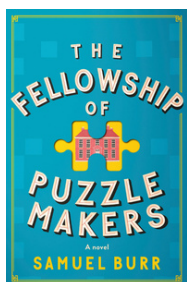

The Funeral Cryer
Helen Oyeyemi

The Funeral Cryer has accepted the realities of life: avoided by fellow villagers because of the stigma attached to her job. She takes a leap of faith--and in so doing, things start to take a surprising turn for the better.

The Mother Act
Heidi Reimer

Sadie never wanted to be a mother. No one feels this more deeply than Jude, the daughter she left behind. While Jude spent her childhood touring with her father's theater company, Sadie catapulted to fame on a one-woman show.

The Fellowship of Puzzlemakers
Samuel Burr

Clayton Stumper might be in his twenties, but he dresses like your grandpa and fusses like your aunt. Abandoned at birth on the steps of the Fellowship of Puzzlemakers, he was raised by a group of eccentric enigmatologists.

Missing White Woman
Kellye Garrett

It was supposed to be a romantic getaway weekend in New York City. Breanna's new boyfriend, Ty, took care of everything. But when Bree comes downstairs their final morning, she's shocked. There's a stranger laying dead in the foyer, and Ty is nowhere to be found.

Sweetness in the Skin
Adelle Waldman

Pumkin is a thirteen-year-old girl living in a tiny house in Jamaica, with her grandmother (who wants to improve the family's social status), her Aunt Sophie (who dreams of a new life in Paris for her and Pumkin), and her mother (who's rarely home).

The Jinn Daughter
Rania Hanna

Nadine is a jinn tasked with one job: telling the stories of the dead. She rises every morning to gather pomegranate seeds--the souls of the dead--that have fallen during the night. With her daughter Layala at her side, she eats the seeds and tells their stories.

Village Weavers
Aggie Blum Thompson

In 1940s' Port-au-Prince, Gertie and Sisi become fast childhood friends, despite being on opposite ends of the social and economic ladder. As young girls, they build their unlikely friendship--until a deathbed revelation tears them apart.

One Last Word
Suzanne Park

Sara is the founder of One Last Word, an app that allows you to send a message after you pass. When another Sara Chae dies and her obituary is posted online, Sara discovers that drafted messages she had drunkenly uploaded have been released.
