UNDER THE RADAR

September 2025

Buckeye Patrick Ryan

In Bonhomie, Ohio, a stolen moment of passion, sparked in the exuberant aftermath of the Allied victory in Europe, binds Cal Jenkins, a man wounded not in war but by his inability to serve in it, to Margaret Salt, a woman trying to obscure her past.

To the Moon and Back Eliana Ramage

Steph is on the run. When she was five, her mother fled an abusive husband to Cherokee Nation, where she hoped they might finally belong. In response, Steph sets her sights as far away from Oklahoma as she can get.

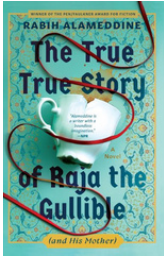

Mercy Joan Silber

In the gritty East Village of 1970s New York, Ivan and his best friend, Eddie, a popular local bartender, are dabbling in drugs following a short tour of Europe. One night, as Ivan experiments with heroin with Eddie, things go horribly wrong.

The Wilderness Angela Flournoy

Desiree, Danielle, January, Monique, and Nakia are in their early twenties and at the beginning. Together, they are finding their way through the wilderness, that period of life when the reality of contemporary adulthood—overwhelming, mysterious, and full of freedom and consequences—swoops in and stays.

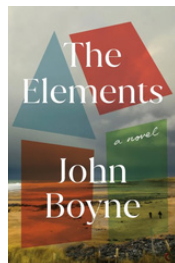

The True True Story of Raja the Gullible Rabih Alameddine

In a tiny Beirut apartment, sixty-three-year-old Raja and his mother live side by side. A beloved philosophy teacher and "the neighborhood homosexual," Raja relishes books, meditative walks, order, and solitude.

Lauryn Harper Falls Apart Shauna Robinson

Lauryn Harper had a perfectly constructed eight-year plan. But after a mishap at work that plan is put to the test. As punishment for her mistake she is transferred to the charity department, located in the hometown she abandoned.

The Elements John Boyne

The Elements follows a mother on the run from her past, a young soccer star facing a trial, a successful surgeon grappling with childhood trauma, and a father on a transformative journey with his son.

We Love You, Bunny Mona Awad

An invitation to the Bunnies' Smut Salon leads Samantha down a dark rabbit hole. Sam has just published her first novel to critical acclaim. But at a New England stop on her book tour, her one-time frenemies kidnap her.

Life & Death & Giants Ron Rindo

A young Amish woman, attended by the country veterinarian, delivers a baby that's eighteen pounds and twenty-seven inches long, and no one knows what to make of the boy.

What A Time To Be Alive Jade Chang

Lola Treasure Gold can't figure out her life. She's broke, she's unemployed, she's back in her childhood home, a crumbling cottage in the Hollywood Hills. Worse—unspeakably worse—one of her closest friends has just died.

Boy from the North Country Sam Sussman

When Evan is suddenly called home from his life abroad to the secluded farmhouse where he was raised by his mother, June, there is so much he does not yet know. He doesn't know his mother is dying. He still doesn't know the identity of his biological father.

Middle Spoon Alejandro Varela

The narrator of Middle Spoon appears to be living the dream: He has a doting husband, two precocious children, all the comforts of a quiet bourgeois life - and a sexy younger boyfriend to accompany him to farmers markets and cocktail parties.

Ripeness Sarah Moss

Edith has been sent to rural Italy with strict instructions: tend to her sister, ballet dancer Lydia, in the final weeks of her scandalous pregnancy. Decades later she has a life of contentment, until her friend Maebh receives a shocking phone call.

Wolf Bells Leni Zumas

On a bluff above a river rises The House, where elderly and disabled residents live alongside young people who help out in exchange for free rent. It's not a family, exactly, but it's got the complicated, sometimes painful, sometimes hilarious, dynamics of kinship.
