MAY

The Foursome

Christina Baker Kline

Eng and Chang Bunker cause a stir when they arrive in Wilkes County in 1839. After purchasing land and starting a business, they're looking for wives. Luckily, the once prominent Yates family has two daughters; Adelaide, who sees an escape, and Sarah, who remains unsure.

The Shippers

Katherine Center

Jojo decides that her sister's cruise ship wedding is the perfect setting for Project Conquest. Surely this will solve her intimacy issues once and for all. When she recruits her childhood friend Cooper to help, she's forced to confront the fact that he's her worst heartbreak.

Ghalen

Walter Mosley

Ghalen is a brilliant young man born to two parents who couldn't be more different. His mother is a scientist while his father is a cook in a small restaurant. As Ghalen comes of age, he remembers his parents' grand love story and seeks to find his own way in the world.

A Fortune of Sand

Ruta Sepetys

Marjorie has always been a little different from her family. As a young woman in 1927 Detroit, she sees her new arts program as a chance to redefine herself. But the program isn't quite what it seems. Strange sounds abound, doors are locked, and women are disappearing.

The Things We Never Say

Elizabeth Strout

Artie is a kind-hearted high school history teacher, sailing enthusiast and devoted family man. But in secret, he's planning a world-changing event. When an accident gives him a new perspective, he realizes that his secret could mean an end and a beginning.

John of John

Douglas Stuart

Broke and fresh out of art school, John Calum returns to life on the Isle of Harris to find that not much has changed. His father John is a farmer, weaver, and lay preacher who finds his son alarming. As the seasons change on the croft, he's not the only one keeping secrets.

JUNE

The Children

Melissa Albert

As the daughter of an author who wrote magical stories, Guinevere's childhood was meant to be enchanted. Instead it went up in flames, leaving them orphans. As an adult, her artist brother opens a show that forces them to confront their childhood.

Sublimation

Isabel J. Kim

When you immigrate, one half stays home and one half begins a new life. Soyoung Rose Kang left home at ten and completely cut off their other selves. In America, Rose is called to go back to Korea for a funeral. But she doesn't know that Soyoung plans to steal her life.

Down with the Shipmans

Meg Mitchell Moore

The Shipman sisters arrive at a family reunion to the news that their father Calvin is planning to sell the beach house. Mae is distraught, Natalie is anxious, but Jordan is ready to see it go. As they begin to pack up the memories, they must fight for their family.

Land

Maggie O'Farrell

In 1865 Ireland, father and son Tomás and Liam take on the task of completing the Ordnance Survey, mapping the entire country. But after the Great Hunger, this is no easy task. As the British soldiers in charge are set to arrive, Tomás is set off course.

Whistler

Ann Patchett

A chance encounter at an art museum reconnects Daphne with her former stepfather Eddie. She hasn't seen him since she was nine when a fateful event changed both of their lives. As a fifty-three-year-old woman, Daphne clings to Eddie as a piece of her past.

Dead But Dreaming of Electric Sheep

Paul Tremblay

When Julia is offered a temp job with her mom's tech company, it seems easy enough. Her task is to chaperone a man in a vegetative state with a proprietary AI implant across the country. But what if the man wakes up to the nightmare of his current existence?

JULY

Sea of Charms

Sarah Beth Durst

Marin sails from island to island with her unconventional crew. As she delivers supplies she finds her friend Dax in danger as a revolution begins. Forced to take him on as a member of her crew, Marin realizes that he might not be the one who needs saving.

City of Widows

Nadia Hashimi

As the US begins to withdraw, the women of Afghanistan must fight for their rights. Marjan has created a new life for herself after fighting with the Afghan army and fleeing her warlord husband. Soraya's upper-class existence is threatened by her status as a wanted woman.

Getting Away With Murder

Shari Lapena

Jill and Ted's New York brownstone is their sanctuary. When Ted makes a bad investment, their carefully curated home is at risk. The death of one family member and an inheritance of millions can solve all their problems, but how far will they go to keep their beloved home?

The Romance Revival

Christina Lauren
